

Business Model Canvas (BMC) – Fitness Center / Gym

1. Customer Segments

People or groups the gym aims to serve.

- Students
- Working Professionals
- Weight Loss Seekers
- Senior Citizens

2. Value Propositions

Value or benefits offered to customers.

- Modern and well-maintained equipment
- Certified & experienced trainers
- Clean, safe & motivating environment
- Nutritional guidance

3. Channels

Ways to reach and communicate with customers.

- Social Media (Instagram, Facebook, YouTube)
- Website
- Word-of-mouth / Referrals

4. Customer Relationships

How the gym builds and maintains relationships with members.

- Progress Tracking & Feedback – Keeps members motivated by showing their improvements and results.
- Regular Follow-ups – Increases member retention through continuous engagement and support.

5. Revenue Streams

Membership Fees (Monthly, Quarterly & Annual) – Main source of revenue.

- Personal Training Charges – Premium one-on-one coaching.
- Group Fitness Classes – Yoga, Zumba, HIIT, etc.
- Supplement Sales – Protein powders, energy drinks, and fitness products.
- Corporate Memberships – Fitness packages for company employees.

6. Key Resources

Gym Equipment & Weights – Essential for providing fitness services.

- Gym Space & Facilities – Workout area, lockers, changing rooms, and showers.
- Digital Resources – Membership Management Software, Website, Mobile App, CCTV & Security System

7. Key Activities

Conducting Workout Sessions – Core activity for members' fitness needs.

- Personal Training – Provides customized fitness guidance.
- Group Fitness Classes – Yoga, Zumba, HIIT, Aerobics, etc.
- Maintaining Equipment & Cleanliness – Ensures safety, hygiene, and member satisfaction.
- Marketing & Promotions – Attracts new members and increases brand awareness.

8. Key Partnerships

Fitness Equipment Suppliers – Provide and maintain gym machines and equipment.

- Supplement & Nutrition Brands – Support product sales and member nutrition needs.
- Nutritionists & Dieticians – Offer professional diet planning and consultations.

9. Cost Structure

Fixed Costs:

- Rent / Lease of the space
- Salaries of staff & trainers
- Equipment purchase & depreciation
- Software subscriptions
- Insurance

Variable Costs:

- New member registration
- Electricity & Water Bills
- Equipment maintenance & repair
- Marketing & Promotions
- Cleaning & Hygiene Expenses
- Consumables (towels, water, etc.)